Be sure to know the details of the type of routine that you are looking for, prior to contacting the choreographer. The following are some things to consider prior to contacting any choreographer:

- Routine type: half time, competition routine
- Purpose: performance, competition, tryout
- Team level: skills that team already has, skills that may be achieved easily
- Elements you would like included
- Number on team
- Music creation
- Budget
- Number of hours/days needing choreographer

These and other details will all be helpful for you to know at the time you contact a choreographer.
